

NIOSH 582 Course Description

The NIOSH 582 is a five (5) day course designed to teach air sampling and identification of asbestos and other fibers by Phase Contrast Microscopy (PCM). The course addresses:

- Calibration and management of air sampling
- NIOSH 7400 fiber identification
- Microscope set up and alignment
- Sample preparation
- Fiber counting (A Rules)
- Calculating the fiber concentration